

Question 12 Parenting & Caring.

a) Children have a right to get an education so that they can become smart & learn things. Then when they get out into the real world they will be able to get a job to support themselves & become more independent. And if they don't go to school & meet new people & have social interaction. Then their self-esteem will not be high it will be very low, with no one to talk to or have conversation with only their relatives. ✘

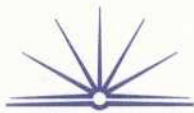

Without this their child's wellbeing is not a ~~very~~ good at all.

b) One service I have studied is a childcare centre that is a service to help & support the child's & the parents & carers it supports them with the help of caring for them child & it also gives them a chance to go out & do what they want of to go to work & so on. They also support them by giving them tips & show them how to take care of there child & also advice. Also some booklet to help them out as well.

c) One form of social parenting is socialising with the children & you can ask them how was there day & what they did & other questions so that you can start a conversation with them & it influences the parents to a better relationship the child so the family situation will be much better & the child will find it very easy to speak to you about things. Your relationship will become better each day & that will give the parents a feel as the children more better at the relationship it will not be hard it will be very casual & just like talking to a friend.

These family situation will become more easier. Your self-esteem will go up a great deal & so will your self-confidence you will be able to do anything. Your needs will be met easier & other things.
You will see the change & know it's for the better. It will even help with your friends or even boyfriends & girlfriends & so on you will. It helps ~~you~~ a great deal with the family situation but. You won't have to worry about where your child is cause you have a great deal of trust in your relationships.
Your family situation will increase that much that you will want to spend weeks more time with them.
You will find it easier to talk about problems & so on.
