

Question 20 - Individuals and work

a) The way workplace regulation and entitlement support individuals in managing family responsibilities is very good they help the individual learn about what a family means to people. And they help you in the tough times.

Question 20 - Individuals and work

b) The Impact of social, legal and technological changes have been very helpful in a way. e.g. If we didn't have technology the workplace would be very slow & would take forever to get things done. The patterns in the workplace are weird e.g. one workplace will be changing to computers and the next thing another workplace is changing. When one does it they all do it.