

Question 1

a. The differences between them was the student and teacher relationships are less formal the uniforms are more casual than the strict formality of ours and she saw no one seems stressed.

Question
c. → The writer was explaining that the aborigines aren't just a stolen generation but a forgotten one. He was trying to tell every one that the aborigines are part of our people community. He was telling every one that ^{aborigines} ~~we~~ have the same right ~~to~~ as others people in Australia.

B It was showing the love that she was getting from the children in St Mary's school. She ~~was~~ ^{was} really love to be with them.

D → They were really enjoyed the trips ~~to~~ as they got more experiences from different people and their perspective the people they have met and the stories they have heard they learn a lot. They were really happy to visit them again.

on ~~the~~ ^{day} 7 she was with her family enjoying the beautiful place she would ever visited. the kids constantly had their family around them. But on day 23 she was a day of rest and reflection. She was thinking about those stresses of suicide - homelessness depression hunger and poverty. These things were really disturbed her. she was alone way from Kew. and from her family and friend. She was thinking about what was the perspective of people doing their job and ~~to~~ running their lives.