

Question 1.

- a) The student-teacher relationships are less formal.
- b) She refers to wander the streets in Broom.
- c) This is to show the storyteller's personal ~~experience~~ feeling and to present other people's perspective other than the writer herself.
- d) Education outside the classroom provide the kind of learning you can obtain only through personal experience, and the writer also realize there are many different dimensions and perspectives to our island, and also if unless ~~a~~ young people are educated about our cultural history, reconciliation will not be embraced on a wide scale.
- e) In day 7, the writer talks about ~~the~~ ~~at~~ her own experience when she spent the time with her host family. In day 23.

she reflects on ~~the~~ ^{all} their experiences and the mainly talks about her own perspective, she uses ~~a~~ a lot of emotional words such as 'immensely' and also uses exclamation 'it's our own backyard' to express her feelings.