

Question 2.

(a). The perspective on travel show in the advertisement are ^{an escape and drop off everything and relax} more suited for a couple. they can be in honey moon which is ^a trip straight after they married. It is best suited for couples because as shown at the top of the advertisement, it says 'HONEYMOON OR ROMANTIC' which targeted to the lower couple or honeymoon couple. Also the trip included a romance package which have activities within the trip. The big 'escape' shows that this trip is letting you relax and enjoy with your partner, and ~~of~~ drop everything in the normal day life.

(b). Text two:

The travel is targeted to a couple to a romantic trip, with all the romantic ~~activity~~ activities, the first perspective is relax and escape from the normal day life, and enjoy with your partner ~~the~~ in the six day romance trip.

Text three:

The advertisement only shows ^{an piece of} ~~and~~ impression and thoughts of the trip, ~~the~~ ~~most~~. The perspective of this advertisement is, that you ~~can~~ can be as powerful and strong as you allow yourself to be, and it is most important ~~to~~ that you taking to first step making the first decision. ~~the~~ The advertisement also tells a fact that people can be stronger if they can be brave and taking the decision.

text ~~three~~ ^{four}:

The advertisement shows that the travel to a website, ~~that~~ which called 'http.wave.com', you can travel the website without actually travel out, shows the website has everything. The perspective is that go surf the website instead of travel out, because you can see everything in the website.

(c) Short report on the experience been into the http.wave.com.

I've been to the http.wave.com, ~~last~~ and it's so great that it has everything, people don't have to travel out but stay at home in front of your computer can truly feeling the scene outside, it's saving money and time. The website has picture illustrations, article description, even sounds access. you can choose your destination, and the website will tells you everything about there, and it is for ~~for~~ free, now I don't have to pay ~~travel~~ ^{money} for travel, I just sit near my computer and surf the world, with all the tourist spot, heritage, local news and story. It is really great, highly recommended for students and family!!