

Question 3

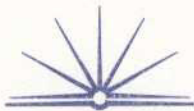

Only the heart and whose life is it anyway? and openth door are all including different perspective and ideas they come from different point of views experience and cultures.

The story only the heart is explaining a lot of experiences from a war in Vietnam that how people suffer from these bad situations. Tuan's story is including including what was happening during the war in Vietnam and he got lot of experiences from age 6. he was too young to understand what is happening with him and his family.

He was telling when he separated from his father when the two official took his father away from him his father giving him notes to be strong when they travel by boat from his country they were really in trouble Linh was his sister was telling the anger of young during escape from her country. They got more experience from what they saw during the war in Vietnam Tuan's grandfather was a best friend of him, Tuan's was thinking his grandfather is full of stories during the war in Vietnam Tuan's was suffering from the sadness tears and memories Tuan's was telling - but being for some people is very hard and for some one is not but when people are in bad situation their is nothing else could be better than doing. When he came to Australia as a refugee in copromatter still these memories are made him mix up ~~what~~ what with what is happening in his country he was looking every thing with different point of views. As there is a person had a ~~car~~ accident in London his name was Ken Harssoon He was a teacher when become a patient in London hospital he was totally lost his movement his body. his brain was normally working but he couldn't move his body at all. he was always asking the doctors to let ~~him~~ him die: But because of duty as a doctor and humanity to one was listening to him. he was telling the doctors that what is the benefits to be ~~there~~ ^{to live} i can't do nothing even a some movement every two hours Two nurses ~~help~~ ~~convinced~~ ~~to~~ ~~help~~ ~~me~~ to help me i can't do nothing. But every doctors was looking and listening to ken with different perspective. he doesn't wanted to be in hospital for the rest of his life: He was telling to doctors that even if can go home he might be a bit relex but it was the same if the doctor let him go ~~to~~ he will die. till at the end he asking for a court judgment he argued with judge as well as with doctors. He never change his mind to die ~~die~~ he was always looking out of the windows he was thinking maybe when i die i will see more confort from relaxation of not be in this world.

he wanted to see the other side of life it sound being not able do anything in this world because what happend to him so he wanted to die and open other door of life. if we refer the a booklet which is it says go and open the door!

opening the door it means take a risk get responsibility looking forward to see what is happing. go and open the door ask us to see if you open a door in your life or try to go one step ahead you might get some thing, not just to go and die like ken Harsson but there is some much more opportunities that we can do. Ken Harsson wanted to die because he was think he can't do nothing. But think he was right he make the right dicision. But for othe statution in life we can do much more better things to save other life or ours. Go open the door ~~is~~ giving the people chance to do something better, life comes with different perspective and ideas. people doing different things to look ^{at} side of life.

at the end we can realise that ~~at~~ only the heart whose life is it anyway and open the door is showing different perspective of people and the situation they here and had.

our life. like leaves it grows and falls
only the heart knows
