

Section I

Q-1

a/ ~~the~~ They consider his choice of career incredibly stupid because it is very dangerous and he is risking his life to perform acrobatics ~~while~~ by cavorting and executing spins, loops and rolls, at these vertigo-inducing heights (14000 feet up in the sky and the speed of 120 mph)

b/ his perspectives about his sport is clear, he ~~is~~ absolutely loves it. he feels safer and more secure in the air and he feels like a little kid while he is in the air; free "...feel like you can do anything." ~~but~~ he knows the fact that his sport is incredibly dangerous

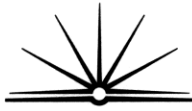

c/ ~~This~~ ~~the~~ The unusual subject which so many people are not familiar with it, the extrim height and speed and Paul's passionate ~~on~~ on his sport are the reasons that makes this article interesting and engage the responders

e / This text advertising the Bridge Climb and the purpose of it is to encourage people to go there

f / heart-thumping (means heart is beating fast)
throat-tightening (means throat gets dry)
pulse-pounding (means pulse goes faster than normal)
Sweaty palms suspense these are describing the excitement, fears, ... of the person who is watching the ~~movie~~ movie

g / The Critical Comments is a newspaper article (Chicago Sun Times) the language is full of excitement and persuasive. It contains a very attractive picture of Vernon Scott and to boxes which tell us the facts and production information. Where text two is an internet site. It is much larger and contains more information and pictures. you can even do your booking or contact them.

h /

21 / 10 / 2002

Chicago Sun Times

32 Simon St

Pitt Water 2011

Dear Sir / Madam

I am ~~writing~~ writing this letter to give my opinion on the increasing popularity of adventure activities. These days everywhere you look, you'll see that people are talking about skydiving, freefall etc and in my opinion that is because of the magazines and newspapers which encourage the people to ~~be stupid~~ ~~be stupid~~ ~~be stupid~~ and go for such things. I think we better put stop on all this and do not let young people and teenagers take their lives in their hands ^{to have} ~~for~~ few mins fun !!

Your faith fully

[Faint, illegible text]