Dear Editor

In this letter, I would like to express my opinion on the increasing ~~interpopularity~~ rate of adventure activities. ~~My~~

Myself is a adventure lover, I love sport ~~especially~~ ~~especially~~ especially ~~the~~ the sports that most people afraid to do like bungee jump, skydiving and rock climbing. Recently I've discovered that there are an increasing popularity of these kind of sports. I ~~find~~ found it very worried. but also happy about it.

On the one hand, the good thing about it is people are more focus on the daily activities and sport ~~to~~ not just stays in the house and doing nothing. It would also gives them a chance to find ~~a~~ their interest.

On the other hand, people will not be able to pay more ~~more~~ attention on the dangerous of sports. The ~~the~~ ^{the sports} reason I think is, as ~~it~~ grows more ~~pop~~ popular people would pay more tention on the good side rather than bad side, the danger side of it. and therefore I think is good for me to express my feeling.
