

Question 1

a) Because skysurfer is a really dangerous job, and it is suicidal.

b) ① He thinks a skill which not many people can emulate when they doing a freefall jump is "It has to do with balance."

② He says, "When I'm in the air, it's like being a kid all over again. ... There are no rules!" That's his perspective when ~~the~~ he is in the air.

c) It uses more ~~more~~ informal words like "THUD" and "SPLAT", to create a sense of humour in the article ~~that~~ which shows us it is not easy to do a freefall jump.

d) The composer uses attractive ~~that~~ languages such as "It gets young people out of bad habits. It becomes a lifestyle and a very good career prospect. ...". It attracts young people's attention.

Also, ~~is~~ the composer creates a relaxed environment "He even demonstrates a sense of humour by offering this anecdote. "I took this 85-year-old lady tandem jumping last year. And when we landed, you know what she said? she said it was boring! ...". The composer uses quotes to attract ~~the~~ audiences.

e) The purpose of text 2 is to inform, to give informations to the audience. And also to persuade the audience to join them.

f) ~~The~~ These words are used to describe the feels of people when they see the picture. • They feel frightened and nervous.

g) Text two is an ~~advers~~ advertisement on the internet. It uses persuasive language and it offers us picture and gives us it's contains in point form.

Text three is a report, it gives us information in form style and uses quotes to support the main idea of the report, And it also provides us a ~~real~~ ^{real} picture to involve the audience.

h)

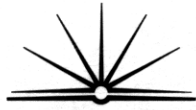

21.10.2002

Dear Editor,

I am writing this letter ~~to~~ in order to provide my opinions on the increasing popularity of adventure activities.

I have seen a lots of articles and books that ^{are} talking about adventure activities. Such as bridge climbing, skydiving. I think they are good activities we should try. They are good for young people to get rid of their bad ~~to~~ habits, also they are very good Career prospect!

Even though the bridge climbing and skydiving are dangerous sports, but I think we should inspite fears and just ~~of~~ try it.

in the future

I hope more activities will coming up, that we can spend ~~out~~ our spare time on them.