

Question 2

Stimulus Booklet

"The door" By Miroslaw Holub

The poem is telling us to go and open the door, it doesn't matter what's behind it at least we had the courage to open it.

There could be a golden city or a drought, it doesn't matter once we open the door.

Drama

Whose life is it anyway? By Brian Clark.

This book has a lot of different perspectives from different people's point of view. eg. Ken, his perspective is ~~we take~~ where everyone else doesn't want to get what he's had asked for, even if everyone else was against him.

~~As~~ Dr Emerson also had different perspectives so did the rest.

All ~~people~~

Everyone has got different point of view, different ideas, thinking, ways in which they live and ~~even~~ even different personalities that what ^{build up} ~~makes~~ perspective in peoples lives.

The text that I have studied they both have ~~to~~ 2 different perspectives and point. one of them is ~~a poetry~~ describing the words in poetry. While the other in people is life lives and emotions so as feelings. One is living reality and the other poetry.

that how we get perspective. It comes from different places and books, ~~so~~ even from our media.
