

The Individual and Society

Who says your way is right? That I standing before you, the former Mrs Nora Helmer must return to my husband and children in order for me to be able to survive in the world that is controlled by all of you? I do not fear being a woman in this world so dominated and controlled by men, and I do not fear being punished by God for breaking Providence as a result of choosing to leave my husband and children.

When I was growing up as a girl child, my father had taught me that my mother was a bad woman because she left him. Other children refused to play with me because I had 'tainted' blood...

Excuse me sir, I have not yet finished speaking, hasn't your mother taught you anything! I was, and I am going to teach you a valuable lesson about the to true and human nature of woman! Your wife I'm sure would agree with me. Now sit down.

As children, and I don't believe I am mistaken, all people learn and believe that women have the sole purpose of child-bearing, to cook, to clean, to mend clothes. ~~Women~~ Women are brought up with the perception that love and happiness occurs in all marriages provided that a woman respectfully obey and serve her ~~has~~ husband, children and family's needs.

The mistake that women have suffered through this century and others is the failure of such an ideal. One, once in marriage, realise that happiness is not always existent in all marriages, it is created as a smile is painted on a doll's face. Stiff, formal and painful. Trapped with no other pose except the one given to you as a woman.

There is no freedom for a woman in marriage in all aspects. Legally, she has no possessions should she choose to leave the marriage, and she cannot even take her children or be allowed to see them once she leaves the marriage. Financially, she has no money because it is beyond the social understanding for a financially dependant and secure woman to do so. No respectable man would let his wife do so.

So where is the free will that all people are believed to have been granted by God? Oh, that's right free will is available to all, to break it would constitute a punishment. But for what have women ~~to~~ who leave their husbands be punished for?

Answer: Don't be silly woman! You are being punished because you have broken your God-given right to do as the Lord has commanded, to bear children and keep the home in order. Why would you want to be a spinster? Why would you want to work? Those are hard lifestyles, men do all the hardwork to allow you women a comfortable lifestyle!

Nora: Comfortable? Comfortable? What makes it so comfortable if you are caught, trapped if you like, in a house full of children and chores all day?

Answer: Hire a maid!

Nora: Then what am I suppose to do?

There are no choices for me. I can't be educated, I can't work. What are you going to allow me to do? Out here, I have no status. I have learnt that low women have an equal status to criminals, minors and the insane! Don't you believe in your ~~more~~ minds that women have the capacity to think like you human men?

Answer: No! It is a disgusting belief that women could be like men. To be such would make you a man! What a sexless woman you are!

Nora: So you don't believe that I am any different? Do you know what does make myself and the women at home who serve you human? ... we contribute to your well-being, we do chores at home to keep the humble home in working order, so that you men may go out and calmly run the society out there, which you own! Women are what keep the foundations of society running! Women work, criminals, children and the insane do not!

How is it possible for me then, for me to pass on tainted blood to my children? If I have the ability to survive against all of you, to work, to feed and properly clothe myself without selling myself, how does that make me bad?

As we speak, my husband is preparing to marry another wife. My children are preparing for another mother. You all would probably do the same. What is so wrong about myself seeking independence to make myself a better person. To make oneself happy and ~~or~~ a efficient person, as part of a species, how is that wrong?

Answer: Self-improvement? You accept what you are born with. If you have tainted blood, accept it! God purposely punished you for the sins of your mother and father.

Nora: Ah, but what if I have the ability to overcome it?

Answer: Nonsense woman!

Nora: Charles Darwin believes that the good and strong survive. The bad don't survive merely because they are weak! It is not punishment. It is not breaking any social order that is governed by God if there is none in the first place!

Answer: What are you talking about? God is the reason why we are here! It is the reason why men suffer sweat, blood and tears!

Nora: True, God is there! But he is merely an outside observer! What we choose to do with ourselves does not involve his interference. God merely takes care of us once our souls go to Heaven.

Answer: Then what about on Earth?

How do we ~~survive~~ survive without a God?

It is impossible. Take your thoughts elsewhere woman!

Nora: The intention of God ~~was~~ partaking in his Creation ~~some~~ once he created us was to ensure that the strongest survive in order to ensure that better species of humans were created, that is what is so great!

Answer: Then what has it got to do with you?

Nora: I am saying, that it has to do with me because, I wish to prove to you I am as equally as human as you are. Fear that women can be as great as men! Know that I shall not suffer from any physical deformities or tainted blood if I should choose and know that I have a mind of my own' It is time for you to change your beliefs that women exist to perform for you. Women deserve respectability and equality of men'

Understand, that it is time to change your ways, and in the world outside, everything you men ~~that~~ think you know and control about the world shall be changed. Darwin ~~has~~ himself has already proved such, Divine Providence does not exist, ~~yet~~ yet God does. And yes, women can survive in a world currently dominated by men. It will be part of improving the human species.

I believe that none of you deserve no thanks for listening, and I hope you come learn the invisible difference between women and criminals, the insane and children that you have failed to see before.

Appreciate women for all they do!

I bid you all a good night.
