

The Urban Dynamics in a large city from the developed world quite similar to those in Christchurch. Although Christchurch is smaller they both would face the same challenges, such as, overpopulation, unemployment, homelessness, lack of funding. Both places would be very similar except one is smaller with these people which means less money to fix the problems.