

Joe's Takeaway in Erina was doing really well he had employed 5 Juniors and 3 seniors there, it was a nice working environment everyone enjoyed themselves.

Joe made hamburgers, chips, chicken, fresh salads, sandwiches and anything else you can think of.

It was then all over McDonalds moved in across the road and Joe shut down his store. There was no business for him anymore.