
Question 22 (14 marks)

- (a) What makes New York City a world city?

3

In your answer, refer to Sources H, I, J and K from the Stimulus Booklet.

It's a location that attracts tourism and visitors. ↑ population. They have world-class hotels, restaurants, museums, cultural and religious icons and famous tourist attractions. They are head leaders for good economy and globalisation.

- (b) How might the culture of place in a large city be influenced by large numbers of tourists?

5

The activities, lifestyles and attractions attract people and tourists to go there and experience it. They aren't a under developed country they are developed therefore they sit on the top level. People go there for business, holidays etc. Good location for major sporting events - such as Olympics.

Question 22 continues on page 12

Question 22 (continued)

- (c) How do population growth and associated urban sprawl affect the provision of both social services and infrastructure? Refer to a large city you have studied.

6

There is more demands on social services and infrastructure, puts stress on the large city such as Sydney. People in that city have to pay more tax and expenses to meet the demands of the population.

The growing population puts stress and demands in business to ~~provide~~ satisfy people's social services.

More infrastructure to meet the needs of the population.

End of Question 22