

Question 22.

a) One advantage would be that the system would run faster and have alot more access to it with better back up being able to be done. One disadvantage is if the information got out then who ever has it would know alot about the patient and if no backup has been made then it could be fatal with the loss of everyones details.

b) storage would be alot more faster and accurate retrieval of information would be made easy accurate and fast. and the display would be neat and tidy.

c) Receptionist doesn't need to know information on the patients because she doesn't have that rife she can only have the number to contact them and remind ~~the~~ the patients that they have an appointment the doctor needs the Patients details so he can keep track of what has happend ~~the~~ to the patients medical background and it would ' make him have a better idea of what the patients needs to recover from an illness.