

Modern History

Section I (continued)

Question 3 (10 marks)

Assess how useful Sources C and D would be for an historian studying the Allies' approaches to Germany at the Paris Peace Conference.

In your answer, consider the perspectives provided by the two sources, and their reliability.

Sources C and D wouldn't be useful for an historian studying the Allies' approach to Germany at the Paris Peace Conference. ~~These~~ source ^C only talks about one of the allies and source D talks about what Germany and what they think.

Source C only talks about how Wilson and ~~the~~ the US thinks about Germany and how US don't want to fight her (Germany) but to make peace. Source C doesn't talk about Lloyd George and Clemenceau's thoughts on ~~the~~ peace and decisions on Germany.

Source D was just a note by the German government stating what they want to achieve, what they thought about peace and what they disagreed on. The German government wasn't even part of the Paris Peace Conference and she wasn't allowed to attend.

Question 3 continues on page 6

Question 3 (continued)

Sources C or D did not mention the key events in the Paris Peace Conference such as the 14 points by US, The punishment Germany could face for example take parts of their land away by France and ideas from Britain for example all countries should be treated equal.

End of Question 3