Option D: Russia and the Soviet Union 1917–1945

Attempt BOTH Question 10 and Question 11

Question 10 (20 marks)

(a) Assess the impact of War Communism and the New Economic Policy (NEP) on both the peasantry and proletariat in Russian society between 1918 and 1928.

OR

(b) Explain how the economic policies of the Communist Party after 1928 contributed to Soviet victory in the Great Patriotic War.

Question 11 (20 marks)

(a) Alexandra Kollontai

- (i) Describe the significant events in the career of Alexandra Kollontai between 1917 and 1945.
- (ii) 'Despite her early achievements in the liberation of women, Kollontai was unable to withstand the reversals in the status of women under Stalin.'

In the light of this statement, assess the role of Alexandra Kolontai in achieving social reforms for women.

OR

(b) Leon Trotsky

- (i) Describe the significant events in the life of Leon Trotsky between 1917 10 and 1940
- (ii) 'In December 1922 Lenin said of Trotsky that he was the most capable man in the Central Committee, although showing excessive self-confidence.'

In the light of this statement, assess the reasons for Trotsky's defeat in the power struggle with Stalin.