

Question 13 (b)

(ii)

~~ADD~~ Albert Speer was one of the most influential people in the German war effort.

After becoming minister for Armaments and Munitions, he used his ability to think and plan to help in making war production more efficient.

Speer reduced the number of different weapons being made, also tanks, planes, troop carriers, trucks.

This making it a lot easier to produce war munitions faster and more effectively, so that they could hit the front as fast as possible.

The adaptation to the war production, helped the German troops immensely, due to Albert Speer's planning, he prolonged the war up to two years longer than previously thought and expected.
