

Start here.

ii) Protective factors for this particular health issue are, things such as public awareness. The more people are aware and know about obesity the more it can be prevented,