i) One benefit of drug testing is that it keeps a level playing field, no athlete is given the advantage of performance enhancing drugs.

ii) Performance enhancing drugs are considered unethical in sport for many reasons, the most common reason is that it gives the drug-taking athlete an advantage over the other athletes thus making the ~~game~~ ~~game~~ game itself unfair. Performance enhancing drugs in sport are also considered unethical due to image. Sports administrators and supporters consider it unethical because it can send a message of 'drug-taking' behaviour to young athletes and fans of the sport. Performance enhancing drugs are also considered unethical in sport as many of them can give the athlete devastating and harmful side-effects.
