Modernisation has impacted the role of women in Afghanistan as mass ~~modernisation~~ communication has drawn attention to the plight of women as the traditional patriarchy dictates that women be removed from public view. Afghan women are banned from receiving education, work and proper health care. Now there are women in parliament however, their microphones are turned off whenever they try to speak so there are still aspects of inequality. Women still wear the burka for fear of being slandered and also for safety as ~~the~~ it ensures anonymity.
