

Start here.

Question 13

a) Buddhism was founded in India by ~~somebody~~ an Indian Prince. He is more commonly known as the Buddha. Buddhism is based on his teachings and experiences. He was the first person to reach 'Nirvana' or enlightenment through the art of meditation.

His father kept him shielded from the miseries of the world, because a prophet said that would either be a great military leader or a great religious man. His father wanted him to be a military leader.

Buddhism is about keeping one's urges or desires ~~at bay~~ ~~at bay~~ ~~at bay~~ to help others.

b) Globalisation is the process of the world becoming a smaller place.

A main feature of Globalisation is technology. Technology has impacted on Buddhism both positively and negatively. Its positive impact is the ability reach more people from different cultural backgrounds throughout the world. This has lead to a greater numbers in Buddhism followers. Also technology such as word Translators have allowed the teachings and books of Buddhism to be understood by more people.

Technologies negative influences are the increased contact, that might tempt them out of their ways.

Globalisation has created an environment where the contact between Buddhists and Non-Buddhists is more frequent and more easily achievable.

Additional writing space on back page.