

Start here.

© Hinduism has been known to be a peaceful religious belief however, some conflicts have been caused between different religions in the world. Hinduism is based around improving one's self to become a ~~better~~ better person. ~~How~~ This is evident in the four Yogas as they try to <sup>use</sup> ~~continuously~~ continuity of ~~good~~ good deeds within one's persons of society to develop a better karma. This is ~~as~~ peaceful acts of worship of Gods, Brahman, Vishnu etc, & the traditions that follow them, eg festivals, bathing in Ganges River. ~~India's~~ India's culture is strongly embedded with Hinduism as <sup>over</sup> ~~many~~ 85% of Indian's ~~say~~ say they are Hindu. ~~Hinduism~~ This allows a unified culture within the country, ~~the~~ however, other religions disagree with Hindu's mores & norms ~~on~~ which cause conflict. ~~the~~ Pakistan is a <sup>neighbouring</sup> ~~neighbouring~~ country of India & has a ~~has~~ different cultural beliefs. This cultural diversity has caused much conflict between the countries which has led to acts of terrorism. These ~~are~~ cultural differences alternately develop ~~so~~ many stereotypes of both nations as neither religions have developed cultural relativism to find cooperation instead of conflict. ~~And~~ Even though Hinduism is considered a cooperative & peaceful belief system the conflict caused between these two religions is due to stereotypes & misunderstanding as they do not communicate to develop public knowledge of & of their cultural diversity. Hinduism's relationship to peace is embedded within the religion however & cultural misunderstandings & stereotypes causes conflict in the ~~to~~ world which.

Additional writing space on back page.