

Start here.

Question 15, (a)

Work can be defined as any strenuous, challenging or difficult activity which leads to the betterment of society or family. Work can be paid or unpaid. Unpaid work is usually called volunteer work.

Leisure can be defined as any activity separate from work, including sports, reading and playing an instrument. A person's leisure activity can become work ~~in instances~~ for sporting stars and professional musicians.

Question 15, (b)

Technology has had, and will continue to have, a huge impact on all aspects of society and culture. Work and leisure included. Technology has made communication easier and more efficient, and has made new forms of leisure such as video games.

Technology becoming more efficient has contributed to the way people spend leisure time greatly. In order for one to have leisure, they must first work. People's perception of what is leisure changes at the same rate technology and people's perceptions of work change. What would of been considered leisure 10 years ago may now be considered as a chore, and therefore, work. An example of this being exercise. Some people consider it work, others consider it leisure. Overall, technology has made many leisure activities more efficient, more enjoyable, safer and more convenient for today's ~~use~~ modern society.

Additional writing space on back page.