

Start here.

BELIEF SYSTEMS.

Society is more accepting of beliefs systems and cultures in Australia. We are a multicultural country. But sometimes there still is a bit of racism amongst us which is very disappointing.

there are churches, mosques, and temples all around Australia and no one has complain. We, as a nation are very accepting.