

(a) Al-Ghazali an Islamic philosopher was said to have contributed to the Sunni & Shia disagreement & found peace between them. He is also known for his years wandering as a ~~Sufi~~<sup>Sufi</sup> & his many books published about Islam & religious understanding.

(b) The effect on Islam that Al-Ghazali had was his calm serenity about life & his constant curiosity. Because of his years wandering as a Sufi people were interested in what he had to say. His contribution to the feud between Sunni & Shia was also regarded highly in Islam. His published books gave an open eyed view to the Islamic community on the understanding of subjects such as religion & philosophy.

(c) Friday Prayer At The Mosque.
This practice expresses the beliefs of Islam through their attendance & attention throughout. Compulsory for males, although not females, it is attended to at a precise time. Hands, face, neck & feet are washed as a sign of respect. Their prayers are given up to Allah, their God. If the Friday prayer can not be attended prayer should be said no matter where the Muslim is to worship & respect Allah.
