

(a) For Two Contributions to Islam made by one significant individual is in fact 'Rabia al Adawiyah'. Rabia al-Adawiyah interpreted the spiritual through her mystical style of poetry she wrote as well as catalyze the behaviour of her readers of her mystical poetry she conveyed, (in communicating with god).

(b) The effect of Rabia al Adawiyah on Islam is that she conveyed the true Islamic beliefs and teachings essentially in the way she lived her life as a muslim. Although Rabia was a Sufi-muslim who led a life of spirituality, as well as expressed her muslim faith to a significant extent. Inevitably she is an important Islamic figure who effected the religion of Islam by leading ~~to~~ by example the life of ~~a~~ a true muslim. Rabia touched many souls through her poetry that describe love, heaven and got unmeritably enhance the individuals knowledge as the Islamic beliefs ~~to~~ and way they should live their lives.

- (c) One following practice that expresses the beliefs in Islam is in fact the Hajj. The Hajj is part of the five pillars in Islam and is a ~~most~~ <sup>are</sup> must for individuals who are wealthy enough to undergo. By undergoing this pilgrimage journey one is expressing the Islamic beliefs by wearing the Ihram which symbolises love, peace and forgiveness. It prides the ~~but~~ and ~~repents~~ forgives all of one's previous sins (as in re-birth). ~~The Hajj is~~ It is obliged that every muslims undertakes whereby they visit the prophet's grave in Mecca. Then the storage of 'Iblis' (Satan) in Minar which evokes the Islamic beliefs in Satan. Inevitably this is how the significant practice of the Hajj expresses the beliefs in Islam.
