

1.a) All those whom you see present before you

~~today~~

today think that in this case <sup>new and</sup> ~~and~~ unjust crime has been created, ~~but they are unable~~ and should be defended, but they are unable to defend on account of the times. Thus it is they are present to fulfill a duty, but remain ~~quite~~ quiet because of the danger to their lives. What then? Am I more audacious than all of them? No, at all. Am I more obliged to duty than the others? I neither wish for praise, nor want it taken away from others.
