

For, Senator, I am a clearest man just man, and I do not wish to seem to be unresolved in this great danger to the republic, but now I myself should not be condemned for inaction. ~~That~~, ~~that~~ ~~every~~ single day that passes the enemies number grows, ~~There~~ ~~They're~~ encamped in Etruria they gather at these camp of those who are ~~and~~ against the Roman people, and every day that passes the number of the ~~entire~~ enemy increases, You can ~~see~~ see her to day the leader of that ~~camp~~ enemy camp is in our walls, and takes his part in the Senate, and is a danger to the state, in our midst.

b) ~~You will long be remembered for this act of banditry.~~

~~Perhaps you seem to be waiting for something worse,~~

~~you live in this danger and you care to include~~

~~in this republic in your plotting, like that~~

b) If however we remove the head of the ~~Thames~~, conspirators, it will perhaps for a short time we will be cured and without worry, but the danger will still remain deeply buried within the veins and vitals of the state, like that of a man of serious fever, whom toss and turns, asks for water, if ~~water~~ is he drinks the water, at first it seems to relieve his ~~symptoms~~ symptoms, but then again they come back and more seriously this time, ~~to his death~~, if ~~we~~ we send this man to death who is in the state, we will not have revealed the root of the problem and it will return. If however we send him into exile, and separate himself from the good, all of them will then gather in

The one place, and then, as often as I have ~~been~~ said, ~~we~~' will be separated. There will be a wall between us.
