

Start here.

Question 1 - part (a)

This was the truth: if ~~he~~<sup>you</sup> ~~sent~~ ~~the~~ had sent the true pirate captain to his execution, you would not have money; if ~~he~~ ~~had~~ ~~pretended~~ ~~to~~ ~~be~~ ~~dead~~ or escaped, it would not be difficult <sup>for you</sup> to find a substitute.

I have said much about the wish for that pirate captain, and often ~~that~~ <sup>those</sup> which <sup>are</sup> ~~is~~ most certain are those crimes which I had already argued.

part (b)

That Cavius, ~~who~~ ~~when~~ whom you ~~spoke of~~ said ~~was~~ had been a sudden spy, was held in the Syracusan quarries by your order, and not him alone was ~~to~~ taken from the <sup>spectacle at</sup> ~~the~~ ~~show~~ ~~of Syracuse~~ <sup>Syracuse</sup>, you are unable to tell me, that ~~which~~ it had been the same Cavius, this great and noble name, ~~that~~ so that it is possible to say that, but ~~to~~ <sup>at</sup> your trial you say that I give you he himself who you would have it said was only in Syracuse by conjecture

Additional writing space on back page.