

Automotive

Section II (continued)

Question 19 (7 marks)

- (a) Why is it recommended that the earth lead be removed first and replaced last when disconnecting or connecting an automotive battery? 1

..... so that the charge can be
..... earth out -
.....
.....

- (b) What does CCA refer to in an automotive battery? 1

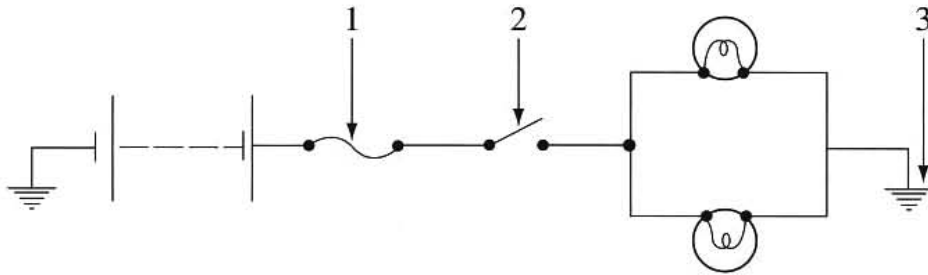

..... ~~Cold cranking amps~~
..... Cold cranking amps
.....

Question 19 continues on page 14

Question 19 (continued)

(c) This diagram shows some components in an electrical circuit.

3

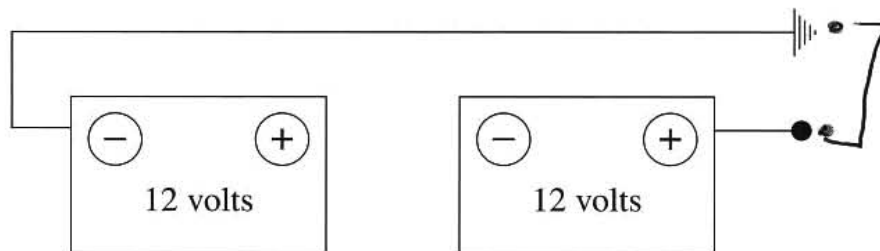

Complete the table naming and describing the function of each numbered component.

Component	Name	Function
1
2	Circuit breaker	to break circuit
3

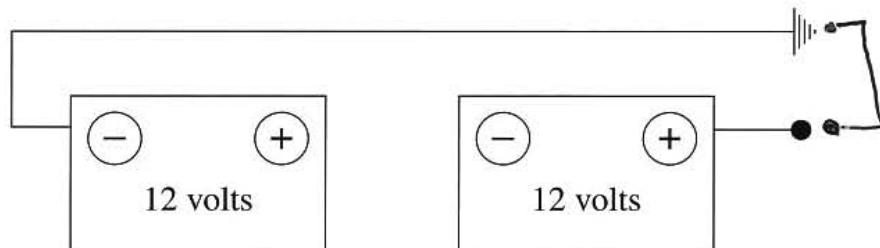

(d) In the diagram below, draw lines to show how to connect the terminals to increase battery output voltage to 24 volts.

1

(e) In the diagram below, draw lines to show how to connect the terminals to maintain battery output voltage at 12 volts.

1

End of Question 19